

Response to allegations on X regarding claims of anti-American and anti-Semitic bias on POP TV

All 24UR journalists and editors uphold the highest journalistic standards. We cover verified information and facts, and this commitment remains unwavering—whether reporting on US President Donald Trump’s plans for Gaza or any other topic. 24UR editorial team condemns the baseless accusation of our reporter allegedly promoting anti-Semitic or anti-American views when covering Israeli Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu’s meeting with US President Trump, discussing the US policy on Gaza. The report, aired in Wednesday’s 24UR news show, contains nothing to back this groundless denunciation of POP TV.

CME Group, which POP TV is a part of, has well-established Standards of Editorial Work, ensuring compliance and accountability with the highest journalistic standards. The CME Editorial board members are Hans Mahr, a seasoned Austrian/German journalist and media executive, and Roby Burke, a senior media consultant with US and worldwide experience.
